The Sweelinckplein, named after the famous Dutch composer, is the most beautiful square in The Hague. With its distinctive oval shape is the heart of the lively Duinoord.

Every building on the square is a monument. The parks on both sides are looking great. The square is built in the nineties of the nineteenth century and the houses were particularly popular with (wealthy) repatriates from the former Dutch East Indies.

Furnished and renovated studio in a monument on Sweelinckplein on the 3rd floor. One the nicest square's in The Hague! Close to city centre, OPCW and ICTY.

Price including TV, internet and utilities is 875 euro. Max. stay till April 2020
